1	I want to make sure ALL of the notes on the sheets were captured. (not just the report outs). Also about the prezi - It went a little fast, and would like time to absorb it all. Clearly a lot has been done but it was not always clear what was the result of the million hours of meetings.	2/7/2017 5:09 PM
2	Would help to give some guidelines for how to implement a community cafe. Some people think they know how they work but don't actually :)	2/7/2017 4:12 PM
3	I learned so much	2/7/2017 4:05 PM

1	It is hard to give feedback on a website using this format, though it was still a useful exercise. the purpose of having everything posted and what you wanted people to do as a result was not as clear it it should be. ("get involved" is not clear enough. If involvement is "go to a meeting" I would again ask, why?)	2/7/2017 5:09 PM
2	Not the best tool to evaluate the website (there are lots of tools that exist out there that you could use as a model) but this was okay.	2/7/2017 4:12 PM

1	I'm not sure I remember this activity very well. I know we looked at the website and then talked some more afterwards to wrap up.	2/22/2017 3:09 PM
2	it was not clear why we were doing this or who the audience was. a communication plan is different from an activity. the goal of the activity was not clear to me	2/7/2017 5:09 PM

1	I would like to see more representation from the field. I know there have been more at past meetings. How can we get more to come back?	2/22/2017 3:14 PM
2	Having some more background knowledge about what the other prof dev groups around the state (e.g., PPD) are focusing on right now -- to give some context for what action is happening parallel to ours (esp if there is going to be merging at some point...)	2/8/2017 1:44 PM
3	have clear goals for each activity: is it generative brain storming, recommendations, decision making, or what. how will the resulting thinking be used? how does this work relate to other CSFP committees work? still not clear how it connects with PPD...	2/7/2017 5:12 PM
4	Different room location. I thought otherwise this was an effective meeting. The parts that made more sense to wait until later, you were willing to hear feedback and change the plan on the fly.	2/7/2017 4:14 PM
